You are willing to start a PhD at the University of Liège? Get the keys to make a good start in research! At the end of this introductory training, you will have a clear idea of the steps and requirements of a PhD, the research environment at the University of Liège (structures, contact persons, training opportunities...), the mobility, funding and career opportunities...

For Who? Future PhD-candidates, PhD-candidates at a very early stage

Practical information:
- Date: October 5th, 2018
- Place: XX-Août, Salle des Professeurs
- Language: English
- Maximum number of participants: 50
- Coffee and lunch provided

Registration

You can register:
- If you already enrolled at the ULiège: via the registration form.
- If you don’t have any ID access: by sending an email to doc-training@uliege.be (objet: «Let’s start a PhD Workshop – October 2018»). Please precise your research field and a contact number.

*****

Programme

9h00-9h30 - Welcoming and ice breaker

09h30-10h30 - Start a PhD at ULiège: notice
How to starting a PhD at the University of Liège? How is a PhD at ULiège structured? Do I have to take course? How many credits do I need to get? What is the doctoral training? Who are the contact persons?

The doctoral candidate and its environment
- Regulations
- Doctoral training: framework
- Your personal file in MyULiège (take your laptop)
- Softskill training programme

Speakers:
- Evelyne Favart (Doctoral Affairs - Research and Development Administration)
- Thérèse Dupont (Soft Skills training - Research and Development Administration)

10.30-10.45 - ReD: Meeting with the PhD-candidate network

10.45-11.00 - Coffee break

11.00-12.30 - To be a researcher in Europe
What is expected of a PhD-Candidates? What are their rights and duties regarding the European Charter and Codes? To be a researcher in Europe today means developing an international profile in a high level research unit and in a very competitive environment. In this session, participants will learn about the principles of quality in academic research, and more specifically during the doctorate. Through examples and participative activities, participants will elaborate on good practices and will deepen their knowledge about all the researcher’s aspects.
Speaker
Isabelle Halleux Director of the Research and Development Administration

12.30-13.30 - Lunch

13.30-14.00 – Funding your research: context and opportunities
What are the Belgian and European funding organisations and structures? How do they operate? How do I put all the chance on my side? What are the perspective along my career? How does the monitoring tools University of Liège 4Research works?

Speaker:
Jérôme Eeckhout (Support to project - Research and Development Administration)

14.00-15.30 – Explore the mobility and career opportunities
Brigitte Ernst (Euraxess Center)
Raphaela Delahaye (European Project Manager Research & Development Administration – ULiège)

https://www.recherche.uliege.be/recherche/formations-chercheurs
doc-training@uliege.be